

Dear Sirs;

It is difficult for me to believe that you would countenance yet even more media consolidation. It is enough that one company owns over 1200 radio stations. Altogether about five men control what 90 percent of Americans see/hear from the media. This helps to explain why over half of all Americans believe (as Bush wants them to believe) that Saddam Hussein caused the tragedy of 9/11.

I call on you to hold an official public hearing in my state.

Before the disastrous 2003 decision to weaken media ownership rules (which a federal court has now overturned), you held only one official public hearing. Further, FCC officials met behind closed doors 71 times with major broadcasters – but only five times with public interest groups. And to justify your actions, you used deceptive, industry-sponsored research data.

The will of Big Media had been heeded at the expense of American citizens and democracy itself. This has to end. Before you rewrite the ownership rules, I demand an official public FCC hearing in my state, impartial and verifiable research, and transparent debates.

It is time to put the needs of democracy – a diverse, skeptical, independent and competitive media system – ahead of profit-hungry media giants.
